

CDR Wishes You A Happy Holiday!

December 2022

Hello,

As we wrap up a year of unprecedented growth and success, we are grateful for all of the wonderful partners and clients that we work with. From moving into our new office in Costa Mesa, growing our team of engineers, expanding our licensing to ten states across the US and opening an east coast office in North Carolina, we have taken great strides in growing our business this year, and we are excited to see what new opportunities the new year will bring.

From all of us here at CDR, we thank you for your continued support! We sincerely appreciate your business, and wish you a happy holiday season filled with happiness, health, and success!

As always, please reach out with any of your civil engineering needs.

Regards,

Aaron M. Albertson, P.E., SCDP
